

Food insecurity is not something that people deserve

How Can You Help?

♦ Volunteer: Work together to feed neighbors by looking for local food banks or community kitchens. This allows you to support families and individuals so they can use their funds to pay expenses and still have access to healthy foods.

♦ Buy Local: You directly support small holder farmers in your community many of whom donate their unsold and unused food to neighbors.

♦ Donate to a non-profit anti-hunger initiative: Your donation to any of these organizations will go directly to support efforts to fight coronavirus-related hunger crisis.
